This motif represents the jewels, typical of the Murshidabad court fashion of the 18th century.

These jewels were presented to Admiral Charles Watson by the Nawab of Bengal on 26 July 1757.

The Nawab of Bengal was known for his penchant for exquisite collection of ornate jewels and a connoisseur of herbal spiced traditional Indian Cuisine.

Preserved in the Victoria Albert Museum, the motif represents a spicy flavour-typical of an Indian tradition.

Mystique Masala is a tribute to the grandeur of the yesteryears.

the tradition at mystique masala

A tradition of excellence, a tradition of making each meal a gourmet's delight.

Out of the timeless bounty of Indian culture came the pearls of our tradition and extravagant hospitality of elegant dining that has always remained an unique and unforgettable experience at Mystique Masala.

While Mother Nature provides the gifts of ingredients, spices and herbs, our chef waves his magic wand and carries you to another realm.

Here at Mystique Masala, our chefs compliment these ways of gracious living.

We hope you enjoy your meal as much as we enjoy preparing it for you.

Welcome to a breath taking journey to diversity of Indian cuisine.
